

SS@Ys°&«'j`:

- Executive / top management groups (C-level)
- Strategic management groups (mid-management)
- Technical groups

Exercise Outcomes:

- Thorough understanding of how adversaries exploit people, processes and technology
- Enhancement of current Incident Response (run book) documentation. If no plan is in place, this course could serve as a starting point for an Incident Response plan.
- Better understanding of how to respond during an incident or event of compromise

"The Adversarial Review follows a methodical process gathering key information, noting interactively areas of weakness or that may need enhancement. The discussions are inclusive with sufficient time for review and break without stagnating. Would highly recommend this valuable service to other organizations."
